When I Must Leave You

*When I must leave you for a little while,
Please do not grieve and shed wild tears
And hug your sorrow to you through the years,
But start out bravely with a gallant smile;
And for my sake and in my name
Live on and do all things the same,
Feed not your loneliness on empty days,
But fill each waking hour in useful ways,
Reach out your hand in comfort and in cheer
And I in turn will comfort you and hold you near;
And never, never be afraid to die,
For I am waiting for you in the sky!*

Obituary

Mr. James Esley Brown, affectionately known to many as Pa Pa was born in Jenkins County, Georgia to Mr. Neal Brown and Mrs. Ella P. Glassker Brown.

Mr. Brown was married to Mrs. Inez Sharpe in 1912, who preceded him in death in 1950. To this union two children were born, Mr. John H. Brown who also preceded him in death, and Mrs. Annie J. Brown West.

He joined the Fellowship Baptist Church at an early age, where he served until his death. He was past Chairman of the Trustee Board at Fellowship. He was a member of the Morning Star Masonic Lodge No. 28, and the Royal Society of Millen.

While living in Jenkins County, he served in many different civic, social and religious capacities, including the following: Justice of the Peace for Jenkins County 1978, a participant in the National Farm Policy Conference in 1967, with President Lyndon B. Johnson, and a graduate of the Georgia 4-H Club Volunteer Leader Training Program from the University of Georgia in 1967.

In 1980, he moved to Metter where he lived until his hospitalization. He passed Sunday, July 25, 1982, at 2:10 a.m., at the Bulloch Memorial Hospital of Statesboro, Georgia.

He leaves to mourn his passing the following loved ones: one daughter, Mrs. Annie Joe West of Metter, Ga.; four grandchildren, Mrs. Eudia Lee Jones of Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., Miss Bernice Jacquelyn Brown of Millen, Ga., Mr. Alton J. West and Miss La Chelby D. Brown both of Metter, Ga.; three great-grandchildren, Mr. Michael Jones of Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., Mr. Rodney G. West and Miss Joy A. West both of Metter, Ga.; one granddaughter-in-law, Mrs. M. Faye West of Metter, Ga.; and many nieces, nephews, and other relatives and friends.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The family wishes to express their sincere appreciation for the many acts of kindness shown during their times of illness and bereavement. May God bless each of you.
